

Nebraska vs. Wichita State

Official Program – 15 cents

December 14, 1974

Following its most successful road trip in years, Coach Joe Cipriano's Nebraska Cornhuskers return to the Coliseum tonight to host Coach Harry Miller's Wichita State Shockers.

Nebraska, 3-1, returns from a road trip which saw the Huskers win two and lose one. Not since 1971 when the Huskers consecutively defeated Colorado and Oklahoma on the road has Nebraska been so successful out of town.

The Huskers beat Long Beach State 67-55 last Friday night during the Sun Devil Classic and lost to Arizona State 83-62 last Saturday night in the finals. On Tuesday night Nebraska beat North Texas State 69-56.

Leading the Husker charge was junior guard Steve Willis who scored 12, 13, and 20 points during the three games. Giving assistance was junior All Big 8 guard Jerry Fort who scored 27, 13, and 14. Fort was also named to the Sun Devil Classic All Tournament team.

"This has been a good trip for us," Cipriano said. "It's been a long time since we've won two of three games on the road. I hope this gives us the momentum for Wichita State.

Wichita State is 2-2 on the year. The Shockers lost to UCLA 85-74, beat South Dakota 88-64 and Brigham Young 80-69 but lost to Arizona State 72-70.

Sophomore center Bob Elmore (6-10) leads the Shockers with a four-game average of 18.3 points and 10 rebounds. Behind Elmore are forward Neil Strom averaging 16.3 points, guard Robert Gray 12.5, forward Doug Yoder 9.5, and guard Willard Tsingine 5.8.

The Shockers are without the services of standout guard Calvin Bruton. Bruton severely sprained an ankle against BYU and was averaging 18 points-a-game going into that contest.

"I am very encouraged on the progress our basketball team is making," Miller said. "I feel by midseason we should have a very good ball club. But by the end of the year we should have an outstanding team.

Miller's record at Wichita State is 39-43. The Shockers lead the series with Nebraska 5-3. The Huskers lost at Wichita State last year 66-58.
